VOLUME XXXIII. UKIAH CITY, MENDOCINO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1902. NUMBER 50

GENERAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

Gathered From Here There and Everywhere.

Events of More Than Ordinary Note which will Prove Interesting.

Last Sunday between 3 and 6 oclock, the safe of the Buckner Hotel in Willits was robbed of a sum of money. Suspicion attached to a young man named Arthur McCombs, who was seen around there about that time and he was arrested by Constable Mumm Reid. On being questioned McCombs confessed that he was guilty but claimed that he only got $70, while we understand the landlord says he was out about $300. The safe was not broken open, but in some way McCombs got onto the combination and succeeded in opening it. Two or three stories are told as to how McCombs learned the combination. One is that he got it from an old book; another that he found a memorandum of it on a piece of paper on the floor, and a third that he had been told by some one acquainted with it.

Lady Fair Committee.

The committee on arrangement of the pavilion for the Second Annual Fair to be held in Ukiah October 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th inclusive met with the Chairman, Mrs. J. H. Barker, on August 28th. Many plans were projected and carefully discussed that in the adoption of any one might be secured the greatest good to the greatest number of exhibiters.

It is the purpose of the committee to introduce many original methods for the display of exhibits which will insure ready inspection and greater comfort to those visiting the pavilion.

A committee for each department was appointed by the Chair, said committee to have exclusive control over all exhibits placed in its department.

Every township in the county is most earnestly solicited to be well represented in tne pavilion display.

The Buckman-Caughey Case.

The case of Buckman against F. L. Caughey was tried in the Superior Court Wednesday. This was the case in which Buckman, who resides in San Francisco, sued Caughey for $5000 damages for alleged injuries inflicted in an alleged assault of defendant upon plaintiff in May last at the Grand hotel. T. L. Carothers prosecuted and J. Q. White defended. The evidence was somewhat contradictory as to what actually took place at the time of the alleged assault. The jury after short deliberation returned a verdict in favor of defendant.

Stage Upset.

Last Saturday the Allman stage which runs between Mendocino and Cazadero, was overturned and rolled down a steep embankment 3½ miles from Cazadero. One passenger was killed outright and seven others were seriously injured. The driver's name was Higgins, and it is said that he took a short cut over an old and but little used road. The wheel struck a boulder on a sharp turn and the vehicle went over, pinning the passengers underneath. The driver and all the passengers were injured. A Miss Annie Lisle, stepdaughter of S. H. Harmon, the San Francisco lumberman, walked to Cazadero with the news.

A Deplorable Accident.

A most unfortunate accident occured last Saturday near Greenwood, in which little Rose McMasters, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMasters lost her life. The little girl, who was about five years old fell from a wagon while the team was in motion, and the wheel passed over her body, crushing out her young life. The greatly bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction. The little girl was a neice of Auditor F. L. Caughey of this city.

The Ware Libel Case.

The libel case of James S. Ware vs Charles Cavanaugh editor of The Fort Bragg Advocate came on for trial yesterday morning in the Superior Court. J. E. Pemberton and Thos. Rhodes are attorneys for plaintiff and McNab & Hirsch, White & Thomas and George Young represent the defendant. The alleged libel is found in an article published in The Fort Bragg Advocate in 1901, concerning the suicide of Mrs. Dr. Sanborn in which it is intimated that Ware had something to do with hounding Mrs. Sanborn to her death. Ware sues for damages in the sum of $50,000. The trial is still going on as we go to press, and we can therefore give no resume of the testimony.

Pyront-Mahurin Nuptials.

Last Sunday Mr. J. F. Pyront and Miss Ray Mahurin were married at the bride's home in this city, Rev. Glen McWilliams of the Christian church officiating. The groom was a former resident of this city, but for several years had resided in Arizona and Southern California. The bride is a sister of Amos Mahurin and has many friends in this city and valley. After the wedding the couple departed for Long Beach, Los Angeles county where Mr. Pyront has valuable property.

John Warren, the South Eel River stockman was in town Saturday.

M. A. Thomas, Jr., and Arthur Henley left Sunday for Stanford University to resume their studies.

It is said that Grace Brothers of Santa Rosa and Ukiah intend to establish a first class ice plant in this city.

The Board of Trustees of this city will put in two additional fire hydrants—one near the high school and one near the warehouse and planing mill.

On Tuesday the State Board of Equalization fixed the state tax rate at 38 cents and 2 mills on each $100, of taxable property. This will raise for state purposes $4,419,506.

The 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Templeton was pleasantly remembered by J. W. Eversole and family and Mrs. Cannon The gift in honor of the occasion being a handsome silver table service.

Rev. W. E. Vaughn, D. D. Editor Pacific Methodist Advocate of San Francisco, will preach at the M. E. Church, South, in this city next Sunday at 11 oclock a. m. and 8 oclock p. m. Dr. Vaughn is an able preacher and all are cordially invited to hear him.

We are glad to note that the differences which recently existed between the members of the local Fire Company and the Board of Trustees, which called out a great deal of unnecessary and harmful talk, has been amicably settled to the satisfaction of all concerned.

The Rev. W. W. Pew (late of Everett Washington) has arrived in Ukiah and will take charge of the Christian Church as Pastor. The subject for his sermon next Sunday at 11 oclock will be "Heaven's Message." Evening subject, "Seeing Jesus." All are invited and the members and friends of the church are especially requested to attend.

The President Injured.

An electric car ran into and overturned the carriage in which President Roossvelt, his secretary, Governor Crane of Massachusetts and others were riding Wednesday morning while driving from Pittsfield to Lennox. Secret Service agent Wm. Craig was killed, the President and Secretary Cortelyou were bruised and injured while Governor Crane escaped unhurt. The conductor and motorman of the car were arrested.

James D. Jamison of Redwood Valley was taken very ill at the Palace hotel last Monday night, his trouble appearing to be something like appendicitis. On Tuesday morning he was removed to Dr. Moore's Hospital. As we go to press he is considerably improved, and it turns out that there was no appendicitis.

The Thompson fruit and vegetable store on School street has changed hands. Hale Brothers late of Geyserville have purchased the business and are already in possession. We understand that Mr. Thompson and sister Miss Kate will return to the ranch.

ACTION OF THE UKIAH BAR.

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of the Late J. H. Seawell.

At 4:30 oclock last Tuesday afternoon, the Superior Court and the Ukiah Bar took appropriate action on the death of the late Hon. J. H. Seawell. Nearly all the members of the bar were present as well as a number of the county officers and others. A spirit of solemnity pervaded the court room as Attorney T. L. Carothers, as the oldest member of the bar present, arose to make the opening remarks. He was followed in order by A. J. Thatcher, John L. McNab, T. J. Weldon, W. P. Thomas, W. G. Poage, J. E. Pemberton and J. Q. White, each of whom paid an earnest tribute of respect to the memory, and testimony to the worth of their departed brother. Mr. Seawell's prominent characteristics of mind and heart were dwelt upon with emotion and with an earnestness which left no doubt of the genuineness of the love and respect in which he was held. His geniality, courteousness and kindness both in social and business life; his high conception of the ethics of his profession; his unselfishness; his willingness to extend a helping hand; his valuable counsel to young attorneys; his public spirit and his wise and industrious efforts for the advancement and upbuilding of Mendocino county, were set forth by the various speakers in words that evidently came from the heart.

In closing his remarks Attorney J. Q. White read the report and resolutions prepared by the committee of the bar. Attorney McNab moved their adoption by a silent rising vote, and so it was. Judge Mannon then delivered from the bench the closing tribute of respect, describing in most feeling language his long and pleasant associations with the deceased brother. The court then adjourned out of respect to the memory of the departed Ex-Senator, Attorney, neighbor and friend.

Following is the report of the committee as adopted:

Whereas, Death has invaded the ranks of the Mendocino County Bar, and on August 24th, 1902, removed from its midst one of its ablest and brightest members—the Hon. J. H. Seawell;

Be it Resolved, that the Bench and Bar hereby give expression to their deep sorrow and great grief at the loss of so distinguished a member;

That we wish to record the genuine and heartfelt sympathy of his fellow attorneys for his bereaved family, and to say in these memorial resolutions that, next to his immediate relatives, we his professional associates will feel his loss most keenly;

That, as a man, J. H. Seawell had all the attributes of a gentleman, having a keen sense of honor; as a citizen he possessed all the elements of a patriot; as a lawyer he was talented and just. He never shirked a duty, even though it might be a disagreable one. Whether for prosecution or defense, he gave to his client the best he had—an able, untiring, aggressive, consistent and eloquent service. He was as quick to condemn that which to him appeared to be against public weal and public policy as he was to approve a policy or act which appeared to him to be right. His sense of justice was as nice as his sense of honor, and he was unswerving in his adherence to both.

His brothers at the Bar recognize also his eminent services in the law-making branch of the State Government, where, at all times, his voice was raised in advocacy of measures that have proved to be eminently advantageous to the commonwealth; and so was he equally zealous and untiring in his efforts to prevent the passage of laws of questionable merit.

We feel that the Mendocino County Bar, to which he belonged for so many years, knew him best, and can say with a knowledge born of this association, that the state, the county and the community have lost a distinguished citizen, and the Bar one of its ablest and most eloquent members.

Be it Further Resolved, That these resolutions be entered in full in the minutes of the Court on a memorial page set apart for them.

And be it Further Resolved, That a copy be suitably engrossed and presented to the widow of deceased, signed by the Judge of this Court, by this committee, and by all the members of the Bar.

And Further, That when this Court shall adjourn upon the completion of its business for this day, the minute entry shall read: "Adjourned in respect to the memory of the late J. H. Seawell."

Respectfully Submitted,
J. Q. White,
J. C. Ruddock,
R. McGarvey,
T. L. Carothers,
Arthur J. Thatcher.

Alfred Howard has brot suit against the DeHaven Lumber Company, for $423, the alleged value of 7 bales of wool which plaintiff delivered to defendant to be passed over defendant's chute to a vessel for shipment. There were 12 bales in all, five of which fell into the water and were lost and some that was recovered was damaged.

The 69th case of bubonic plague has now been officially recorded in San Francisco, making eight cases for the month of August. Dr. White of the U. S. Marine Hospital service, has notified the city Board of Health that he is now more apprehensive that the disease will spread rapidly than ever before. You don't read of this in the San Francisco dailies, but it is true, nevertheless.

Hop Notes And Prices.

The Waterville Times General Hop Report, under date of Aug. 26, says: Cable advices from London reported a firm market and report was current that a sale was made during the latter part of last week of 300 bales choice 1901 Pacifics at 130s, which is equivalent to 26½c f o. b. New York. Weather in England was reported unsettled, warm; also reported that mould has appeared. Advices received from Schoharie County, New York, said that lice was prevalent. Coast advices report that it was practically impossible to contract for 1902 hops; crop prospects continuing favorable. Nothing new was reported from Germany. The local market was firm, and according to some reports, slightly more interest was shown by brewers and the trade. No business of importance, however was reported transacted between dealers, buyers and sellers being slightly apart in their ideas of values. The price generally named by sellers for prime hops was 26c, but indications were that bids of 26c for do would result in business.

In New York state the weather has not been favorable, and there is an attack of lice; whether vermin will cause damage cannot be foretold now, but there is time enough if they get into the burr. Some of the operators here have been occupying idle hours in figuring out the probable home yield, consumptive needs of the trade in this country and the apparent surplus. The most reliable of these estimates run about as follows: Pacific Coast crop 180,000 bales; New York state 40,000 bales, olds and extracts say 7,000 bales; probable imports say 30,000 bales, stocks in brewers' hands on September 1, 1902, 50,000 bales, which makes a total of 307,000 bales. Requirements on a supposed consumption of 42,000,000 bbls., 170,000 bales, leaving a surplus of 137,000 bales for export and for fall and winter use in 1903. Advices from Germany report a 10 mark decline under good crop prospects. The English crop looks badly, the weather continues very unfavorable. Most of the late cables indicate yield of not more than 350,000 cwt. Our local market is very narrow because of the smallness of the stocks. Those who have hops ask extreme prices for them, but there is an exceedingly limited demand, as most of the brewers have some supplies on hand, the cool summer having lessened consumptive requirements. A single bale of new hops arrived from both this state and from California.

A Letter From Litchfield, Neb.

Thomas Clancy, of Litchfield, Neb. wrote us a few weeks ago about his experience with Dr. Gunn's Blood & Nerve Tonic. As his case may be similar to others it naturally would be of interest to them to know the result of his test. He had been haunted for years with a gradual growing weakness until he was reduced to almost a shadow. His complexion was sallow and pimply, had dizzy and sinking spells, with loss of memory and ambition. Always felt tired and outdone, suffered greatly with nervousness, and felt that his heart's action was weak. His digestion was so poor his system received no nutriment. He says he commenced the use of this Tonic, taking one tablet after each meal. He did not notice much change after using one box only he enjoyed his meals better, still he kept on until he had used six boxes. He used the last box more than six months ago. When he stopped the use of the Tonic he weighed 28 lbs. more than he did when he commenced. Has not been sick a day since, and is well in both mind and body. Dr. Gunn's Blood & Nerve Tonic is the best medicine in the world for pale, weak or sickly women. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us about your case. Address, Dr. Gunn, Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by J. R. Mathews, Druggist.

Discoveries of The Hearst Expedition.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, August 30.—The discoveries made in Egypt during three years of excavation by the Hearst Expedition from the University of California will be described by Dr. George A. Reisner in five lectures at the University during the next three weeks. This expedition, equipped and maintained by the generosity of Mrs. Hearst, has excavated palaces, temples, villages, cemeteries, and rock-cut tombs at Der-el-Ballas, Naga-ed-Der, El-Ahaiwah, and other historic spots in Egypt.

The rich collections gathered for the University by Dr. Reisner represent forty centuries of Egyptian life. Among the discoveries made were bodies of the prehistoric people who dwelt in Egypt six thousand years ago, naturally mummified by the soil in which they were interred. In the collection are gold, jewelry, household utensils, pottery, weapons, paintings, sculptures, and funerary objects representing all periods of Egyptian history from prehistoric times through thirty dynasties down to the days of the Ptolemies.

Poe where they pitched their tent among the redwood trees and were the recipients of many kindnesses of Mr. Poe and wife. While there they visited all the places in the vicinity of note and captured two antlered beauties.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Orr took in Orr's Hot Springs and the famous Montgomery redwood tract and were mounted upon the nimble steeds Skates and Tina.

They also entertained for one day and night one of Stanford's Students —Mr. Anderson Thomas.

Rev. H. Jacobs had a couple of stitches put into a flesh wound on his face on Monday through making a futile effort to board a moving car at the Rockpile the same morning.

Arena Encampment, I. O. O. F., royally entertained Chief Patriach Wever on the occasion of his official visit Monday night. After the meeting the members present and their wives repaired to the Grand Hotel and partook of an excellent supper.

Charles Reynolds had quite an accident while going home one day last week. He had on a load of hay with merchandise on top so that the load was top heavy. The wagon turned over, and Gib Mosier, who was riding with him, was thrown through a fence and was considerably bruised. In tipping over the bed was twisted in two. Mr. Reynolds was not injured.

Miss Lena Brettnacher is critically ill in St. Mary's hospital, San Francisco. She has undergone two operations for abscesses on the intestines, and blood poison has set in. The attending physicians give no hope for her recovery.

The Point Arena Athletic Club will give a ball in Halliday's Hall on Admission Day, September 9. The committees are already at work making arrangements, and a successful event may be expected. Posters will be printed today.

Nearly the entire population of the extreme south of Mendocino county gathered at the Gualala Hotel on Monday afternoon, August the 25th, on the occasion of the funeral of Mrs. C. D. Robinson, who was one of the very early settlers of this county, having arrived here with her husband in June, 1858. Mrs. Elizabeth D. Robinson died at her home at Gualala Hotel on Saturday, the 23rd instant of heart affection, and was in her 80th year, having been born in Erie county, Pennsylvania. She was married 56 years ago to Mr. Cyrus D. Robinson who survives her, but of their five children only two—Mrs. Jacobs and Frank Robinson—are now living. There are, however, fourteen grandchildren and nine great grandchildren, both the third and fourth generations being represented at the funeral.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

MENDOCINO PICK-UPS.

The Albion mill was closed down Thursday on account of the breaking of the connection between the carriage and the steam feed. Work was resumed yesterday.

The rumor is persistent in town that Capt. Simpson, who recently with his brother purchased the controlling interest in the Mendocino Lumber company, has also bought President E. C. Williams' interest in the company. Nothing authentic could be learned regarding the report, as none of the employees here had received knowledge of the transaction. There is a tendency to believe the report, however.

Frank Brown killed a brown bear last Tuesday in the vicinity of the observatory hill on the Willits road. Those who know say it was the largest and finest specimen that has been killed in this neighborhood for many years. It weighed 400 pounds, and its coat of fur was in excellent condition for this time of the year. Mr. Brown had it in town Wednesday and it formed the center of attraction.

The new lumber and sawmill being built in Anderson valley by the Albion company is progressing nicely, and when completed it will be quite a good-sized mill. The foundation is finished and work has been begun on the main structure. A town site has been surveyed and platted. Work on the railroad extension is being pushed as rapidly as possible, although a portion of the construction was recently temporarily suspended on account of the litigation with the Navarro company, over whose land the survey passes. The crew was transferred to that section between Albion and the boom, and the building of the road will not be delayed.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. R. Mathews' drug store.

Bob Dair had his collar bone broken Friday while after cattle. A wild steer charged him, knocking him down, and using him up pretty bad.

Rock McMullen, Charlie Brossart and Fred Rouz left Monday morning for the Ferndale races, with the race horses Mad Anthony, Dennis and Carilee.

We understand that since the first of last April about 480 men have been shipped in here to work, and still men are scarce. The men do not stay here long after arriving, striking out for other parts.

The fire company was out for practice Monday evening, testing the new fire pipe up Redwood avenue. With one stream on, water was thrown over the top of the tower on the Finnish Temperance Hall. With two streams on, the force was almost as great.

AN APPRECIATIVE MAN.

It is always a pleasure to do a kind act for a worthy man, but it is a much greater pleasure to know that it is appreciated. J. F. Barbee, who is the Democratic nominee for School Superintendent, which office he has held for the past four years, giving good satisfaction, is a man that is truly appreciative, especially to Fort Braggers, who did so much to insure his election four years ago, giving him a handsome majority. Mr. Barbee has a warm place in his heart for the interests of this city, and in putting in his card for re-election, we deem it nothing more than right to let our readers know that Mr. Barbee is appreciative, which cannot be said of every man running for office. During his term of office the schools have flourished throughout the county, many changes for their betterment having been introduced.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure they excel anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in Liver, Kidney and Stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cts. Satisfaction is guaranteed by J. R. Mathews.

POINT ARENA NEWS.

POINT ARENA, Sept. 1, 1902.

After being laid up for over a month with muscular rheumatism, Otto Schiller is able to be around again.

Threshing is still going on in and around this place. F. D. Albee has charge of the thresher this year.

John Thurman's new house is rapidly nearing completion. A house warming was given by Mr. and Mrs. Thurman a week ago, at which all the young folks present enjoyed themselves immensely. It will be the finest residence around Point Arena, and is being built by a San Francisco contractor.

There was a bad accident on the Allman stage line last Saturday a few miles from Cazadero on the down grade. The brake failed to hold and the four horses became unmanageable, upsetting the coach, killing one man, breaking the driver's leg and badly injuring Miss Mamie Poggie of Gualala, who was on her way to college. There were four other passengers, but have not heard yet whether they were badly hurt or not. Fred Higgins was the driver.

Perley Hiett returned to his home at Napa on last Friday's boat, after spending a few days with his mother who is very sick.

Robt. Denman has returned to his home at San Jose, after spending the summer here. He is much improved in health.

Miss Lena Brettnacher, formerly of Point Arena, but now of San Francisco, is very sick at the St. Mary's hospital at that place, and no hopes are entertained for her recovery by the physicians. There have been three operations performed already

The work on the life-saving station is progressing rapidly, and Mr. Richey, the contractor, is to be commended on the work done. It is about 200 yards from the wharf, and the buildings show off fine on the hill.

Our several teachers are getting ready for Institute week in October, and are congratulating themselves on having missed the hot weather which would have been the case if held at the regular time.

The people here have enjoyed an excellent summer. There have been very few cold north winds and hardly any fog. It is very seldom we have such weather this time of year, and everybody has made the most of it.

The Misses Bonnie, Cora and Irene Gaine left last Friday for San Jose to resume their studies at school.

Rev. S. E. Crowe, who has occupied the pulpit at the M. E. Church for the past two years, leaves this week for Conference and will probably not return, altho the people would very much like him to do so, as he and family have become quite popular.

This being Labor Day the school is not in session. Next Monday being Admission Day, school will also be postponed.

Politics are being talked of a great deal of late and the three candidates from this place will soon begin to stir things up. John Lane, the Democratic candidate for Supervisor is going to give Alex Duncan a run for his money at the polls. Hanen and Halliday are doing nothing but saw wood. REP.

NEW FALL GOODS

At The

CITY OF UKIAH

A FINE STOCK OF NEW FALL GOODS HAS ARRIVED THIS WEEK Great Shipments are arriving daily from the Eastern Markets. The Finest stock in the history of Northern California will be shown here this season. Our great success last season only spurred us on to laying in a greater and finer stock for this coming season. The largest one season's business in our history we expect to do this fall. After months of careful and conscientious buying we gathered together such an elegant stock that will insure us to do the business we expect to do, and at the same time our patrons will receive the newest goods and greatest values ever offered in California.

HONESTY IN BUSINESS PAYS

The continued growth of our business shows that honesty pays in the long run. We believe that commercial honesty pays, not tomorrow, not next year, but all the time--today. This principle is carried out strictly in the policy of our stores and in all our advertising. That is the reason that our stores today rank with the best stores in the State. It will be seen that the stores who started in with a "whoop," making the people believe that they are giving them something for nothing and at the same time receiving their good money for "shoddy" goods, are today on the decline, their stores getting too large for their stock and business, while our big store today is crowding us for space.

Watch Our Fall Opening, Do Not Send Away For Anything in Our Line, We Will Show You A Stock of Merchandise Such As You Have Never Seen Before And We Are In A Position Today To Sell Goods Cheaper Than Any Store in California.

A RELIC OF WITCHCRAFT.

A curious discovery has been made at Lynn, in Lincolnshire. In an old house a heart shaped piece of cloth, pierced with needles and pins, has been found in a "graybeard" bottle. This is undoubtedly a relic of witchcraft. According to the editorial secretary of the British Archæological association, the memento was designed for some one's harm. "It is part of the paraphernalia of witchcraft. The most interesting thing about this discovery is that it should have occurred at Lynn—i. e., in a part of the world where the superstitions belonging to magic and witchcraft might be supposed to have long disappeared. The house is said to be old, and the fact that the cloth was contained in a 'graybeard' or 'bellarmine' bottle would seem to show that the time of its deposit belongs most probably to the sixteenth or early seventeenth century, at which period, of course, a belief in witchcraft was universal."—St. James Gazette.

All His Staff Must Marry.

Health Commissioner Bosley of Baltimore has startled all of the twenty-four members of his staff with a matrimonial order. The unmarried men have been told to find wives before the end of another year, and the widowers have been given a reasonable time in which to get married again.

Dr. Bosley when questioned about his odd order said that he found he could get better service out of married men than single ones. "It has been my experience all along," said the commissioner. "A man is not apt to settle down until he has a wife to take care of. This, of course, is not always the case, but it is true in the great majority of instances. A great department like this, dealing, as it does, with the health of the city, demands the services of steady men who can be relied upon for any emergency."

Cancer Contagious.

Long and careful inquiries by German doctors indicate that cancer is not probably hereditary, but that it is perniciously contagious. In certain districts the number of sufferers in proportion to population is much larger every year than in other areas. Dogs and cats in many instances become cancerous, but few horses and cattle are attacked. Men and women are stricken on the average earlier in life in this generation than in those which preceded it. It is hoped that these German investigations of this frightful curse, which are to be kept up persistently and upon a scale both liberal and extensive, may result in the discovery of some remedy for cancer. But, of course, that can be only a matter of conjecture.

Inverness Will Be Swallowed Up.

Inverness, the capital of the highlands, is threatened with a terrible calamity, according to Dr. Davidson of Birmingham, an authority in seismology. It is known to geologists that Inverness occupies a most interesting position at the outlet of the great crack or crevasse in the geological formation of the northern part of the island, which, as the Caledonian canal, cuts the country in two. He warns the inhabitants of Inverness to be prepared for earthquakes periodically. The earth's crust in the Inverness district is gradually slipping seaward, and Loch Ness, one of the chain of lakes which form the canal, in a few "hundreds of thousands of years" will be part of the sea.—London Spectator.

A Fragrant Chinaman.

"Wu Ting Fang," says the London Chronicle, "acquired his pungent English in London. He was a student in the Middle temple in 1876 and was known by his proper and unpronounceable name of Ng Choy. Subsequently after he had entered the public service of his country at Tientsin and had been promoted to be a mandarin he followed the custom of adopting an official name. Ting Fang is said to mean 'hall fragrance' and is intended to indicate that the one so designated is so just and eminent a lawgiver that the sweet savor of his reputation 'fills the court.'"

Two For Five.

Andrew H. Green, "the Father of Greater New York," says: "I have prepared a bill, which is now before congress, for the coinage of a two and a half cent piece. This would be in very many other ways also a great convenience and a means of saving to wage earners." It would also aid in his idea of cutting street car fares in half, he says.

WHEN WIT MEETS WIT.

Mr. John Kendrick Bangs is the proud possessor of three young sons, the eldest of whom bids fair to rival his famous father in wit. The other day Mr. Bangs took the three boys out for a long tramp, miscalculated the distance and found he was tiring the youngsters out, though not one of them would confess it. At this moment they came to a pretty difficult hill. It occurred to Mr. Bangs to lighten the boys' labors by stirring their imaginations, so he pretended the hill was San Juan and they were to charge up to the top. All went well till the eldest boy stopped in the middle of the rush to blow his nose.

"What's this?" said Mr. Bangs. "A soldier stopping during a charge to blow his nose? Nice soldier you would make. Why, you'd be disgraced forever for a thing like that."

"I should think," replied the imperturbable youngster, "that it would be easy enough to take your handkerchief and wipe out the disgrace."

Mr. Bangs continued his part of the charge in a meek silence.—Harper's.

Sol Smith Russell's Songs.

In the minds of those who had followed the stage career of the late Sol Smith Russell for thirty years or more his name was always closely associated with two songs. One of these he sang in the late sixties, when he was billed as "a serio comic vocalist." Its refrain—

I saw Esau kissing Kate;
The fact is, we all three saw,
For I saw Esau, 'e saw me,
And she saw I saw 'e saw—was on nearly everybody's lips in the country at the time. Years afterward when he had become a succesful dramatic star he made the song "Shabby Genteel" famous by his pathetic rendering of it in "A Poor Relation." He not only acted and looked, but for the time being he was, the personification of the refrain—

Too proud to beg, too honest to steal,
I know what it is to be wanting a meal;
My tatters and rags I try to conceal;
I'm one of the shabby genteel.

—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Land of Fire and Ice.

A new geological map of Iceland by Dr. Thoroddsen, who has spent many years on the work, gives much fresh information about one of the world's most wonderful islands, which few visitors ever see. An example of the strangeness of Iceland is furnished by the volcano Katla. This is buried under immense snowfields, but from time to time its fires burst through the glittering blanket, and then such floods are poured from the melting ice that a great stretch of country between the volcano and the sea is inundated, and huge masses of ice are carried out into the ocean. It is unsafe even to cross the territory lying between Katla and the sea, so suddenly come the floods.

A Poet's Needs.

Here is a life tragedy told in a three line advertisement in a Boston newspaper. This is the advertisement:

Wanted.—Sunny, airy, quiet, comfortable, unfurnished, inexpensive room by nonsmoking, tidy, middle aged, unmarried poet.

Only a case hardened soul could read these lines without tears. Think of it! A poet in his tidiness and his middle age hunting a room! There is unspeakable pathos in the cheerful way he puts it, with the glad things first.—Argonaut.

An Innocent Wisconsin Man.

The Washington Times says that a certain representative from rural Wisconsin, desiring a drink of water before going to bed the other night, found that the bellboy had neglected to leave the customary pitcher in his room. A little search, however, revealed two small buttons on the wall, under one of which was inscribed, "Push twice for water." He pushed as directed, and when the bellboy arrived with the water the congressman was found holding a pitcher under the button.

A Dangerous Salute.

The Christian Register condemns the so called "Chautauqua salute," which has been popularized at religious gatherings and which consists of waving handkerchiefs simultaneously. "Unless all the handkerchiefs are clean," it says, "think of the microbes with which the atmosphere is charged after hundreds of them have been waving in the air of a hall closely packed with human beings!"

The Moth.

"Yes, our parlor carpet is ruined."

"Moths?"

"One moth did it all."

"Nonsense!"

"Fact. My husband saw this moth flying around, and in trying to catch it he upset a bottle of ink and a lighted lamp on the carpet."—Philadelphia Press.

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the chain of life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of heart or lungs, liver or kidneys, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

"I was in poor health when I commenced taking Doctor Pierce's medicines," writes Mr. Elmer Lawler, of Volga, Jefferson Co., Ind. "I had stomach, kidney, heart, and lung troubles. Was not able to do any work. I had a severe cough and hemorrhage of the lungs, but after using your medicine a while I commenced to gain in strength and flesh, and stopped coughing right away. Took about six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I feel like a different person. I gladly recommend your medicine to all sufferers, for I know it cured me."

The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure that foul breath.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

How Henry Ward Beecher Learned an Important Lesson of Life.

Friends of Henry Ward Beecher repeat a story which he used to tell about his teacher, who taught him to depend upon himself.

"I was sent to the blackboard and went, uncertain, full of whimpering.

"'That lesson must be learned,' said my teacher in a very quiet tone, but with terrible intensity. All explanations and excuses he trod under foot with utter scornfulness. 'I don't want any reason why you haven't it,' he would say.

"'I did study it two hours.'

"'That is nothing to me. I want the lesson. You may not study it at all or you may study it ten hours. Just suit yourself. I want the lesson.'

"It was rough for a green boy, but it seasoned me. In less than a month I had the most intense sense of intellectual independence and courage to defend my recitations.

"One day his cold voice fell upon me in the midst of a demonstration, 'No.' I hesitated and then went back to the beginning, and on reaching the same point again 'No!' uttered in a tone of conviction barred my progress.

"'The next!' And I sat down in red confusion.

"He, too, was stopped with 'No!' but went right on, finished and as he sat down was rewarded with 'Very well.'

"'Why,' whimpered I, 'I recited it just as he did, and you said "No!"'

"'Why didn't you say "Yes" and stick to it? It is not enough to know your lesson; you must know that you know it. You have learned nothing till you are sure. If all the world says "No!" your business is to say "Yes!" and prove it.'"

Good Night.

Little boy sweetheart, with eyes that shine
Blue as the skies on a summer morn,
Lips that are wreathed in a smile divine,
Velvety cheek that is pressed to mine,
Life has seemed fairer since you were born;
Fold up your petals, my rosebud white;
Good night, my baby, good night,
Good night.

Little boy sweetheart, I love you so!
How deep that love you will never know;
Night after night, when my work is through,
Worn out and weary, I come to you,
Bend o'er your couch till upon my ear
Falls a faint music I yearn to hear,
Made by your breathing so soft and light,
Good night, my baby, good night,
Good night.

Then by your side as I nightly kneel
To the All Father I make appeal,
That he will guide you and guard and bless,
Touch you with love and unselfishness,
Mold you and lead you life's path along,
That you grow manly and true and strong,
That he may grant you a future bright,
Good night, my baby, good night,
Good night.

—Denver News.

Jenny and Her Goat.

Little Jenny is five years old. She has a goat five months old. It follows Jenny like a playful little dog. It nibbles bread and green lettuce out of her hand. Sometimes in play it butts its little head against Jenny, and then Jenny pretends to tumble down. But it is all fun. The goat would not hurt her little mistress.

"Kiddy, Kiddy," says Jenny. "Ma-a!" says the little goat. Then Kiddy pretends to be cross and to butt Jenny, and Jenny pretends to tumble down and to be very angry.

So then there is a great fuss. But it is all only play.

CONDENSED STORIES.

He Never Opens a Letter With the Address Turned Down.

"I am not superstitious," remarked Representative Otey of Virginia, "but that looks like a very fine pin."

Thereat the Virginian stooped in his walk through the long corridor of the capitol and picked up a small black headed pin. "I am not superstitious," he repeated, "but there is one thing I never do—I never open a letter with the address turned down. I will tell you why. When I was a bank cashier, I had a lot of letters in my mail one day. They were piled up neatly before me, and I began to look over the contents of each. Finally down in the pile quite a way there lay a letter turned back up. I opened it without looking at the address and pulled out a certificate for a deposit of $3,000 in the bank.

"I scanned those figures closely. I knew they were my handwriting, the ciphers being large and clear. But I also knew that certificate had been for only $300, or, rather, the deposit had been for only $300, and plainly I had made a mistake in transferring it. You can wager that I pulled myself together very quickly, and, although several months had elapsed and the certificate had gone into the hands of a third party, I tried to stop payment on it.

"Well, to make a long story short, the whole thing was straightened out, and neither I nor the bank lost any money by the transaction. But from that day to this I never open a letter with the back of the envelope toward me."—Washington Post.

Reserves In Wax.

Senator Millard of Nebraska was in the National museum the other afternoon. He was examining with much interest the group of wax figures dressed in the various uniforms worn by United States soldiers since the days of the Revolution. A member of a party of tourists stepped up to the senator and said:

"Can you tell me, sir, if these are soldiers who were killed in our last war?"

"No," replied Senator Millard; "these are soldiers we are saving to be killed in our next war."—Washington Cor. New York World.

They Were His Clothes.

Oliver Hazard Perry Belmont was the first representative to appear in the house with a new spring suit of clothes. It was a check worsted which Representative Dick said was louder than the speech which Rhea of Kentucky was delivering at the time. The members crowded about Mr. Belmont and offered congratulations on his quiet attire. He took their gibes good naturedly until one of them said:

"I believe that suit makes more noise than Belmont's red automobile when it is going down Pennsylvania avenue, and the automobile sounds like a machine gun in action."

"Now, see here," rejoined the New York city congressman testily, "these clothes are mine, and I am wearing them."

The other representatives moved away at this sign of ill temper and talked of introducing a resolution to the effect that the millionaire's clothes disturbed the deliberations of the house.—Cor. Chicago News.

A Glance at the Future.

Professor Collins, Pennsylvania's scientific agriculturist, some time ago was recommending to a Berks county farmer a powerfully fertilizing manure in which he was interested. After some discussion the sagacious farmer declared that he had no faith in the manure, as the proposed quantity was too small to be of any use.

"My dear sir," said the professor, "such are the wonderful discoveries in science that I should not be surprised if in the near future we carry the manure for acres of land to the field in the pocket of our coat."

"That may be so," replied the farmer, "but in that case I'm inclined to think you would carry back the crop in the pocket of your vest."

Pretty Safe Rule To Go By.

When there is a feeling that the heart or lungs, blood or liver, brain or nerves are diseased, at once commence to doctor the stomach. That is the foundation of the trouble in 90 cases out of a 100. Commence to regulate the digestive organs, get them in healthy working condition, and the other troubles will leave of themselves. Diseases which have their begining in the stomach must be cured through the stomach. The medicine for stomach disorders and half the ills of life, is Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. These pills put all the digestive organs in good condition so that disease has no basis to work upon. They are sold by all druggists for 25 cts per box. One pill is a dose. Theodore Bell, the Democratic nominee for Congress in this District is a man eminently qualified for the position. His record as District Attorney of Napa county is excellent, his work in that office having given him a statewide reputation for efficiency, energy and integrity. Want of time forbids an extended notice of him this week, but he will be heard of and from during the campaign, and to some purpose.

The Williams (Colusa county) Farmer in recording the withdrawal of Hon. Frank B. Glenn from the Senatorial race in this district, said: This leaves the Hon. J. B. Sanford of Ukiah as the only aspirant. Mr. Sanford has had the experience afforded by three terms in the lower house of the legislature, and his election to the upper house will be but a fitting recognition of his past manly course and honorable services to the people of the State.

The nomination of J. B. Sanford for State Senator from this District is no surprise. It was conceded by all the counties that Mendocino county was entitled to the nominee, and the voters of this county expressed their satisfaction with Mr. Sanford's candidacy at the primaries. In Mr. Sanfords absence we can say for him that he greatly appreciates the honor his friends of the four counties have conferred upon him, and will always strive to deserve the confidence they have thus expressed. His aim will be, if elected, to work, as he has in the past, in the interest of all his constituents.

Franklin K. Lane For Governor.

The Democracy of California is to be congratulated upon the good work done by the State Convention at Sacramento.. In the nomination of Franklin K. Lane of San Francisco for Governor, the party has demonstrated the sincerity of its claim that it is the party of the people, willing and anxious to afford equal protection and opportunities to all, knowing no such thing as rank, except the rank of character. The assertion that Mr. Lane is a man of sterling character, broad abilities, strict integrity and comprehensive sympathies, is amply sustained by his public and private career in San Francisco. Coming to California when but seven years old, he was educated in our western schools, working to pay his way, and finishing up by a two years' course at the State University at Berkeley. Beginning the study of law, he worked as a type setter and later as a reporter to earn his living until he was admitted to the bar. He was one of the first advocates of the Australian ballot law as a means of suppressing political corruption and bossism. In 1898 he was elected City and County Attorney of San Francisco and has been twice re-elected to that office, each time by an increased majority, his majority in 1901 being 11,000. In every emergency he has been found true and able. He is a champion of labor, having worked his own way up from the ranks of labor, and his magnificent majority in 1901 proves that he has the support of labor. His nomination as the gubernatorial candidate of the Democracy came from the people, and his triumphant election will prove the wisdom of their choice.

Ludicrous, indeed, is the attitude assumed by the Anti-Gage portion of the Republican press, anent the nomination of Dr. Geo. Pardee for Governor. Especially does this ludicrousness stand out prominently in the cases of the Call, Chronicle and Los Angeles Times. It is claimed by these journals that Pardee's nomination means the complete and overwhelming defeat of Dan Burns, Martin Kelly, "the machine" and the political wing of the Southern Pacific company. But the Gage and railroad press is not content to let it go at that, nor to be shorn of the fruits of its manifest victory over its allied enemies. Take, for instance, the Sacramento Record-Union. That Republican—Gage—Railroad organ of August 29th published an editorial, boldly proclaiming that for his nomination Dr. Pardee was indebted to Gage, Burns and "the machine." We quote from the Record-Union:

"The Chronicle knows that Mr. Pardee was the nominee of Henry T. Gage. * * *

"In very truth The Chronicle knows that Governor Gage named his successor, and the name of that successor is George C. Pardee, and that this naming of that successor was the result of prearrangement between the nominee and the Governor of the state."

"There may be an individual in California so uninformed as to recent political events as not to know that Colonel Burns was the author and finisher of Dr. Pardee's political fate; but the Chronicle is not in that category." "So, when the Chronicle pretends to believe that the party has changed leaders, or that the men with whom it co-operated in the election of Henry T. Gage four years ago, are not still the dominating influence of the Republican party, it does not make this false claim in ignorance of the real facts of the situation."

"Every man in the state of California who knows anything of these matters knows that the Chronicle's assertion of a "smashed machine" is a shallow pretense. * * The simple truth of the whole situation is that the leadership of the Republican party has not changed since the nomination of H. H. Markham, and in all the years since that event there has been no interregnum."

There fellow citizens of the Republican party, you have the "straight goods," without equivocation. You are authoritatively told by one of your own organs, whose inside knowledge cannot be doubted, that ever since the nomination of Markham, you have been dominated by Dan Burns and "the machine," without a moment's interregnum, and that you are still under that domination.. After this, nothing the Democratic press may say along that line, can be disputed.

The Silver-Tongued Fitch.

Commenting on the notable absence of anything resembling truly eloquent oratory in the recent Republican State Convention, Editor Charlie McClatchy of The Sacramento Bee recalls the days of Edgerton, Wirt Pendegast, Tom Fitch and others, the power of whose oratory swayed great audiences by its truly eloquent fervor and masterly English. The following is quoted from Editor McClatchy's article, and aside from its reference to an incident in the life of a Ukiah man, it is well worth reading for its historic value:

"In the Republican State Convention at Los Angeles which nominated John F. Swift for Governor, three oratorical stars appeared in all their glory—Henry Edgerton, W. H. L. Barnes and Tom Fitch.

"It was in that remarkable Convention that Tom Fitch delivered the speech which wrested the nomination for Attorney-General from Thomas L Carothers and gave it to W. H. H. Hart. Carothers had the nomination in his hands. It is a question if a majority of the Convention were not actually pledged to him.

"Fitch arose and painted a marvelous picture of a supposed scene in war. He described the contending armies. In words that glowed and eloquence that held men breathless, he sketched a panorama of the lurid scenes of that day. He depicted the Union soldiers battling against hope, being driven back and back, and fighting inch by inch over the lost ground. He shadowed forth in somber tones the irretrievable defeat of the Union forces unless reinforcements could be had. As only Tom Fitch could, he pointed out in marvelous English the almost certain death that awaited any messenger who would be sent on the errand for help.

"The hearers were all a-quiver.

"Fitch went on in his incomparable way to tell how one lad volunteered to carry a message for reinforcements. He depicted the heroic boy on horseback dashing down the gully between the contending forces, with screaming shot and hissing shell flying all around him. With marvelous rapidity of utterance, with thrilling eloquence of words and of manner, and yet with each syllable ringing as clear as a bell, he showed the lad to his hearers carrying the message in safety and saving the Union Army by the reinforcements which he brought.

"Not a sound was heard as Fitch rushed along in his torrential eloquence. Delegates seemed fixed like statues in their chairs. Men and women leaned over the gallery balustrade, open-mouthed, as though fearful of losing a single word in the magnificent rush of marvelous English. Fitch grew more and more impassioned, his audience more and more breathless, as he brought the panorama to a close. Stopping not for a second, but still rushing on in his impetuous speech, Fitch concluded: 'And now, gentlemen of this Convention, in the name of the Union Army, which he saved on that day—in the name of its soldiers dead and its soldiers living—I nominate for Attorney General of the State of California the messenger boy of that holiday of Hell, W. H. H. Hart, of San Francisco.'

"The scene that followed beggars description. Every man in the hall seemed to spring to his feet at once and fling his hat in the air. Cheer upon cheer resounded through the building. With tears streaming down their cheeks the women in the galleries and on the floor waved their handkerchiefs in hysterical excitement until the whole place seemed to be one mass of fluttering linen.

"Carothers was snowed under, and W. H. H. Hart was nominated.

"The whole story was a magnificent lie.

"And Tom Fitch got several hundred dollars in gold for telling it so magnificently."

THE WISE CHAPLAIN.

When Representative Hank Smith of Michigan was a student at Adrian college, one of his most intimate chums was a young man who afterward became a preacher. Smith was himself a rather frisky youth, but the then future preacher was fully his equal in the line of college pranks. The two met the other day in the capitol, and Mr. Smith and Rev. Charles E. Wilbur, now of Pittsburg, leaned up against one of the big marble columns and indulged in reminiscences.

"Charles has just told me a story about congressmen," quoth Mr. Smith in the midst of their jolly confab. "It is about a member of the house who once brought his little son here to Washington with him. The youth sat by his father's side one morning when the chaplain offered prayer.

"'Papa,' exclaimed the boy, 'why doesn't the chaplain pray for the members of the house?'

"'He is too wise a man to do that, my son,' was the paternal reply. 'He is praying for the country.'"—Washington Post.

"Mad Jack's" Naval Prank.

Captain Percival of the navy, whose portrait has just been presented to the navy department, died in 1862. He was known as "Mad Jack" Percival because of eccentricities which on many occasions brought him in conflict with the naval authorities. The portrait was sent by Mrs. William Nicholson, but who she is the department is unable to discover.

Captain Percival was sent to Morocco with his frigate to bring back a cargo of jackasses for the government, and in order to show his contempt for the employment of a war vessel for such a mission on entering New York harbor he ran in all his guns and placed the head of a jackass through each port as the ship sailed in. The sight of a double row of jackasses' heads protruding from the places where guns were looked for created a sensation at the time, and "Mad Jack" narrowly escaped a reprimand.

The Inquisitive Yankee Abroad.

A curious American arrived in London one morning recently. Here are a few of the questions he asked in the evening: Why do butchers wear blue aprons which will not show dirt, while assistants in boot shops wear immaculate white aprons? Why is footwear "boots," while the boy who polishes them is a "shoe" black? Why is there no direct bus from London Bridge station to Waterloo? Why is the poste restante in the largest city of the world not open all night? Why do many women wear straw hats in the winter? Why can't you get breakfast in a restaurant within a reasonable time after "sunup?" When is "sunup" anyhow?—London Chronicle.

Stage Names.

The custom of adopting stage names seems to be less commonly followed now than it used to be. A writer in the Brooklyn Times points out that in the olden days not one in a hundred stage performers appeared before the public under his own name. Of the three "Billys" of minstrelsy whose deaths were recorded recently — Billy Emerson, Billy Rice and Billy West—Emerson's real name was William Redmond, Rice's William Pearl and West's John Murphy.

THE DISPATCH SCHOLARSHIP PROPOSITION.

THE DISPATCH presents a proposition whereby many energetic pupils can get a business education free this fall. By a little effort after school and on Saturdays, a good hustler can in a few weeks get sufficient votes to win a scholarship free.

The plan this year is not competition in the sense it was last year; that is, no contestant will be shut out because some one else gets a few more votes. Each contestant will be thrown upon his own resources, and if he gets a certain number of votes a scholarship will be awarded to him in proportion to his vote. The scale of vote is so arranged that each community can at least get one scholarship for some contestant.

The following proportionate vote will entitle contestants to DISPATCH Scholarships in the San Francisco Business College as follows:

4000 Votes—Good for 6 months Scholarship—Value $60.

3300 Votes—Good for 6 months Scholarship in Shorthand and Typewriting, or 5 months in regular course—Value $50.

2700 Votes—Good for 4 months Scholarship—value $40.

2000 votes—Good for 3 months Scholarship—value $35.

Every contestant that secures 4000 votes will be awarded a 6 months Scholarship. Those that get 3300 votes, 2700 votes, or 2000 votes will be issued Scholarships as indicated above. It makes no difference whether the number be 5 or 50, all have a chauce to win.

Every payment on subscription entitles the subscriber to votes at the rate of 5c per vote, regardless of whether payment is for arrears or in advance.

One year's subscription ($2.50) good for 50 votes.

As an inducement to get new subscribers, THE DISPATCH will be sent from now till Jan 1, 1903, for only $1.00, entitling the subscriber to 20 votes.

This is going to be a hot political campaign and contestants will have no trouble in securing new subscribers.

CONTEST BEGINS JULY 4TH.

As soon as contestant gets votes sufficient to secure the Scholarship desired, his Scholarship will be awarded to him and he can go to school without waiting for the others.

Contestants, send in your names and begin work at once.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR STUDENTS

As will be seen by an "ad" in another column, THE DISPATCH is going to give the young people of Mendocino county an opportunity to get a business education free this fall by putting in a few spare moments after school and on Saturdays hustling for votes. The coming political campaign will be a warm and interesting one and there will be little trouble in securing new subscribers or in getting old ones to pay up and renew. If all our subscribers will pay up and renew within the next three months, there will be sufficient votes to send at least 20 pupils to school this winter, saying nothing whatever of the new subscribers that can be secured for the campaign for only $1.00.

Last year 5 contestants were issued scholarships. According to the plan now arranged at least 20 pupils can be successful this year. Small communities will not be shut out by the larger ones. The vote received by each contestant last fall was as follows: Warren Brown, 8927; Alta Anderson, 6140; Alfred Peterson, 5555; Maude Sherwood, 5555; Elsie Rowe, 5410; George Cummings, 2655; Archie McGimsey, 2544; Ralph Byrnes, 2425; Della Shimmin, 2017; Herman Iversen, 1525; Ruth Wilson, 1450; Clarence Duncan, 1200; Gerten Saunders, 1100; Florine Anker, 1000.

According to this vote, upon the plan arranged for this year, 5 could get 6 months scholarships and 4 others at least 3 months scholarships. All but the 5 in the lead became discouraged and made no effort toward the last. Had they kept on the entire list could have gotten over 2000 votes each and thus have gotten a scholarship upon the plan now arranged. There is no need for any one to get discouraged this time. All have an equal chance.

This year, Ukiah can get at least 2, Hopland 1, Anderson Valley 1, Calpella 1, Potter 1, Willits 2, Laytonville 1, Covelo 1, Pt. Arena to Gualala 1, Manchester and Greenwood 2, Albion—Comptche 1, Mendocino—Caspar 1, Ft. Bragg 1, Westport and vicinity 1, Usal and northern county, 1.

It is hoped that each community will enter a contestant at once. Remember that 4000 votes secures a 6 month's scholarship, 3300 votes—6 months in shorthand and typewriting or 5 months in regular course, 2700 votes—4 month's scholarship, and 2000 votes—a 3 month's scholarship.

The 3 month's scholarship has been placed so low that no community need be shut out. A year's subscription ($2.50) is good for 50 votes. Partial payments at the rate of 5c per vote. Each contestant will be commissioned an agent to receive subscriptions and those desiring to make payments are requested to do so thru the contestants.
